

AVAILABLE ASSISTANCE TO BUSINESSES

The Arlington EDA is pleased to offer local businesses access to the following incentives and information resources.

TAX INCREMENT FINANCING

Tax increment financing is a tool which allows the City/EDA to reimburse the company or land owner a portion of the new property taxes which are generated as a result of a project. The amount of financial assistance available (TIF) is dependent upon a number of factors including but not limited to the assessed market value of the building and the financial need of the company. Several types of TIF districts are authorized by state law, including but not limited applicable to, economic development (new development) projects and those applicable to redevelopment projects.

TAX ABATEMENT

Like TIF, tax abatement is a tool which allows the City/EDA to reimburse the company or land owner a portion of property taxes which are generated within a specified period of time. The difference between TIF and tax abatement is that with tax abatement the County and/or school district have an option to participate (with TIF participation is mandatory). The amount of the tax abatement available depends on a number of factors, including, but not limited to the financial need of the company and participation by County and school entities.

INDUSTRIAL REVENUE BONDS

IDBs may be utilized if the company owns or is leasing the facility. The bonds are marketed on their financial strength. Financial statements of the company do not need to be disclosed to investors. If the company is interested in this option, the City or EDA would proceed with requesting an allocation for funds from the state of MN, following submittal of the required pre-application.

SMALL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT LOAN PROGRAM (DEED)

This state program is available to manufacturing or industrial small businesses (500 employees or less) which create a significant number of new jobs. Eligible projects include business expansions with funding for acquisition of land, building, equipment and/or building construction or renovation. Interest rates depend on the market rate of interest at the time bonds are sold. Terms are typically 20 years for real estate and 10 years or 80% of the useful life for equipment. Projects must be completed within two years. The MN Agricultural and Economic Development Board (MAEDB) review applications monthly.

SBA LOAN/GRANT

The U.S. Small Business Administration does not offer grants to start or expand small businesses, though it does offer a wide variety of loan programs for business start-ups and expansions including 7(a), 504 and disaster assistance.

SBA 7(a)

SBA 7(a) loans are the most basic and most used type loan of SBA's business loan programs. The '7(a)' name comes from section 7(a) of the Small Business Act, which authorizes the SBA to provide business loans to American small businesses. A key concept of the 7(a) guaranty loan program is that the loan actually comes from a commercial lender not the Government. All 7(a) loans are provided by commercial lenders called

'participants' because they participate with SBA in the 7(a) program. Not all lenders choose to participate, but most American banks do. There are also some non-bank lenders who participate with SBA in the 7(a) program which expands the availability of lenders making loans under SBA guidelines.

7(a) loans are only available on a guaranty basis. This means they are provided by lenders who choose to structure their own loans by SBA's requirements and who apply and receive a guaranty from SBA on a portion of this loan. The SBA does not fully guaranty 7(a) loans. The lender and SBA share the risk that a borrower will not be able to repay the loan in full. The guaranty is a guaranty against payment default. It does not cover imprudent decisions by the lender or misrepresentation by the borrower. Under the guaranty concept, commercial lenders make and administer the loans. Under the program a business applies to a commercial lender for their financing. The lender decides if they will make the loan internally or if the application has some weaknesses which, in their opinion, will require an SBA guaranty if the loan is to be made. The guaranty which SBA provides is only available to the lender. It assures the lender that in the event the borrower does not repay their obligation and a payment default occurs, the Government will reimburse the lender for its loss, up to the percentage of SBA's guaranty. Under this program, the borrower remains obligated for the full amount due.

Loan documentation requirements may vary; contact your lender for information you must supply. Common requirements include: purpose of the loan, history of the business, financial statements for three years (existing businesses), schedule of term debts (existing businesses), aging of accounts receivable and payable (existing businesses), projected opening-day balance sheet (new businesses), lease details, amount of investment in the business by the owner(s), projections of income, expenses and cash flow, signed personal financial statements and personal resume(s). You should take the information, including your loan proposal and submit it to a local lender. If the lender is unable to approve your loan, you may ask if the lender can consider your request under the SBA loan guaranty program. Under this program, the SBA can guaranty up to 85% of a small business loan; however, the lender must agree to loaning the money with the SBA guarantee. The lender will then forward your loan application and a credit analysis to the nearest SBA District Office. After receiving all documentation, the SBA analyzes the entire application, then makes its decision.
